Friday, May 28, 2011 (New York, New York) – The follow up to three successful mix-tapes, The First Flight, Airborne and Past, Presents, Future, Daniel Diggy Simmons, has released his first single today. With Atlantic Records and Violator Management putting in overtime work with the 16-year-old Simmons, "Copy, Paste" was shared with party attendees at Daniel's 16th Birthday Party and now with the world.

The release of "Copy, Paste" comes soon after the recent announcement of Daniel being a nominee for the 2011 BET Awards, in the "Young Star" category. Diggy Simmons is joined with Willow Smith, Jaden Smith, Keke Palmer and Shenell Edmonds. The nomination is just one of many current and eventful happenings within Diggy's world; constant performances, a summer tour and the continued progression with the completion of his first album included.

BET Networks released that the 2011 BET Awards star studded event is scheduled to take place on Sunday, June 26, 2011 in Los Angeles, CA at 8pm EST/7pm CST. The live televised show will be held at the historic Shrine Auditorium. Hosted by Comedian and Actor Kevin Hart, Jive Records recording artist, Chris Brown leads nominations with six (6). Lil Wayne receives five (5) and Kanye West, Rihanna and Drake tie with four (4) each.

Taking to Twitter.com to express his excitement following the announcement, Diggy tweeted:

"Tooo ovrwrwhelmed with all the amazing news I've gotten today! Don't even know what to say right now besides I love my #JetSetters 2 death!!"

Known as the "General JetSetter" to his "JetSetter" fan base, the nomination is the General's first BET Award nomination since signing to Atlantic Records in March 2010. With the continued dedication put into the studio, "Copy, Paste" is the first of several great singles to be released.
